Ensuring the safety and well-being of students and staff is of great importance within educational environments. To strengthen the ability of school administrators, educators, and security personnel to identify and address potential threats effectively, it is essential to adopt best practices in school threat assessment. By incorporating insights from recent cases and reports published by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the United States Secret Service (USSS), the School Threat Assessment Training offers a comprehensive approach to enhancing school security. This training program is specifically designed to equip attendees with valuable insights into current trends, patterns, and risk factors associated with school threats, enabling them to make informed decisions and take proactive measures.
